FOREWORD

The Government of Kenya (GoK) is committed to ensuring that policy objectives for Education, Training and Research meet the aspirations of the Kenya Constitution 2010, the Kenya Vision 2030, National Curriculum Policy 2019, the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the Regional and Global conventions to which Kenya is a signatory.

Towards achieving the mission of Basic Education, the Ministry of Education (MoE) embarked on a reform process that culminated in the adoption of a Competency Based Education (CBE) system in 2017. This came after extensive research, stakeholder engagement international benchmarking and consideration of the 21st Century socio-economic realities. CBE in Kenya adopted a 2-6-3-3 structure where the numbers indicate the years learners take at various levels in Basic Education (Pre-Primary, Primary, Junior School and Senior School; respectively). CBE has for critical elements: The Competency Based Curriculum (CBC), Pedagogy (teaching and learning), Resources and the Competency Based Assessment. The MoE oversees the provision of resources while the other components (Curriculum, Pedagogy and Assessment are handled by the Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development, (KICD), Teachers Service Commission, (TSC) and the Kenya National Examinations Council (KNEC); respectively.

KICD has successfully developed curriculum designs that have been used in the implementation of the Competency Based Curriculum (CBC) for the Pre-Primary, Primary and Juniors School levels. The first cohort of learners pursuing the CBC will transit to Senior School (Grades 10-12) in 2026. The curriculum designs at this level are expected to facilitate learners to acquire relevant knowledge, skills, values and attitudes (competencies) in preparation for tertiary education and the world of work. I urge all agencies of the GoK and other stakeholders in Education to use the designs to plan for effective and efficient implementation of Competency Based Education.

PREFACE

The Ministry of Education (MoE) through the State Department for Basic Education, has been implementing the Competency Based Education (CBE) since the adoption of the Basic Education Curriculum Framework (KICD, 2017) during the national convention in January 2017. The Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development (KICD) developed Competency Based Curriculum (CBC) designs that were used for pilot studies in 2017 and 2018 before the roll-out at Pre-Primary and Primary Early Year (Grades 1 to 3 in 2019. The curriculum was then introduced in the subsequent grades through a phase in –phase out strategy, to ensure a smooth transition. Currently, the first cohort of CBC learners are at Grade 9 – the last grade at Junior School. The implementation of CBE has since benefited immensely from the recommendations of the Presidential Working Party on Education Reforms (PWPER) that were released in August, 2023 and fully implemented, in terms of curriculum designs.

Grade 10 is the entry class of the Senior School (SS) in Basic Education, a very critical level where learners shall have the opportunity to focus on pathways, tracks and subjects of their choices guided by the potentials demonstrated at earlier levels. The Senior School shall; therefore, form a foundation for further education and training and/or initial competencies for the Industry. This is an important step in the realisation of the Vision and Mission of the curriculum reforms as enshrined in the Sessional Paper No. I of 2019 whose title is: Towards Realizing Quality, Relevant and Inclusive Education and Training for Sustainable Development in Kenya.

The Grade 10 curriculum designs, like the designs for earlier levels, are anchored on the Kenyan National Goals of Education. They also present essence statements, general and specific expected learning outcomes as well as strands and sub strands for the learning areas. The designs also outline suggested learning experiences, key inquiry questions, core competencies, Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs), values and suggested assessment.

The Ministry of Education, through the State Department for Basic Education commits to provide resources and relevant guidelines for a smooth implementation of the CBC. It is expected that the designs will guide teachers to effectively facilitate learners to attain the expected learning outcomes for Grade 10 specifically and Senior School in general.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

The Kenya Institute of Curriculum Development (KICD) Act Number 4 of 2013 (Revised 2019) mandates the Institute to develop curricula, programmes and curriculum support materials for Basic and Tertiary Education and Training. The curriculum development process involves research, international benchmarking and robust stakeholder engagement. Through a systematic and consultative process, the KICD conceptualised the Competency Based Curriculum (CBC) as captured in the Basic Education Curriculum Framework (KICD,2017), that responds to the demands of the 21st Century, the United Nations Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs). African Agenda 2063, East African Community Protocol and the aspirations captured in the Kenya Constitution 2010 and the Kenya Vision 2030.

KICD receives its funding from the GoK to enable the successful achievement of the stipulated mandate and implementation of the Government and Education sector plans. The Institute also receives support from development partners targeting specific programmes. The Grade 10 curriculum designs were developed with the support of the World Bank and GoK through the Kenya Primary Education Equity in Learning Programme (KPEELP); a project coordinated by the MoE. Therefore, the Institute is very grateful to the GoK, through the MoE and the development partners (especially The World Bank) for support in terms of policy guidance, resource provision and capacity building. Specifically, I wish to express special thanks to the Cabinet Secretary-MoE and the Principal Secretary-State Department for Basic Education.

We also wish to acknowledge the KICD curriculum development officers and other staff, all teachers, educators who took part as panellists; the institutions that participated and representatives of various stakeholders for their roles in the development of the Grade 10 curriculum designs. In relation to this, we acknowledge the support of the Chief Executive Officers of the Teachers Service Commission (TSC), the Kenya National Examinations Council (KNEC) and other agencies in the sector for their support in the process of developing these designs.

Finally, we are very grateful to the KICD Council Chairperson and other members of the Council for consistent guidance and oversight. We assure all teachers, parents and other stakeholders that these curriculum designs will effectively guide the implementation of the CBE at Grade 10 and preparation of learners for transition to further education and training or the world of work.

NATIONAL GOALS OF EDUCATION

Education in Kenya should:

1. Foster nationalism and patriotism and promote national unity.
   Kenya's people belong to different communities, races and religions, but these differences need not divide them. They must be able to live and interact as Kenyans. It is a paramount duty of education to help young people acquire this sense of nationhood by resolving conflicts and promoting positive attitudes of mutual respect which enable them to live together in harmony and foster patriotism in order to make a positive contribution to the life of the nation.

2. Promote the social, economic, technological and industrial needs for national development.
   Education should prepare the youth of the country to play an effective and productive role in the life of the nation.
   a) Social Needs
      Education in Kenya must prepare children for changes in attitudes and relationships which are necessary for the smooth progress of a rapidly developing modern economy. There is bound to be a silent social revolution following in the wake of rapid modernization. Education should assist our youth to adapt to this change.
   b) Economic Needs
      Education in Kenya should produce citizens with the skills, knowledge, expertise and personal qualities that are required to support a growing economy. Kenya is building up a modern and independent economy which is in need of an adequate and relevant domestic workforce.
   c) Technological and Industrial Needs
      Education in Kenya should provide learners with the necessary skills and attitudes for industrial development. Kenya recognizes the rapid industrial and technological changes taking place, especially in the developed world. We can only be part of this development if our education system is deliberately focused on the knowledge, skills and attitudes that will prepare our young people for these changing global trends.

3. Promote individual development and self-fulfilment
   Education should provide opportunities for the fullest development of individual talents and personality. It should help children to develop their potential interests and abilities. A vital aspect of individual development is the building of character.

DRAFT

4. Promote sound moral and religious values.
   Education should provide for the development of knowledge, skills and attitudes that will enhance the acquisition of sound moral values and help children to grow up into self-disciplined, self-reliant and integrated citizens.

5. Promote social equity and responsibility.
   Education should promote social equality and foster a sense of social responsibility within an education system which provides equal educational opportunities for all. It should give all children varied and challenging opportunities for collective activities and corporate social service irrespective of gender, ability or geographical environment.

6. Promote respect for and development of Kenya's rich and varied cultures.
   Education should instill in the youth of Kenya an understanding of past and present cultures and their valid place in contemporary society. Children should be able to blend the best of traditional values with the changing requirements that must follow rapid development in order to build a stable and modern society.

7. Promote international consciousness and foster positive attitudes towards other nations.
   Kenya is part of the international community. It is part of the complicated and interdependent network of peoples and nations. Education should therefore lead the youth of the country to accept membership of this international community with all the obligations and responsibilities, rights and benefits that this membership entails.

8. Promote positive attitudes towards good health and environmental protection.
   Education should inculcate in young people the value of good health in order for them to avoid indulging in activities that will lead to physical or mental ill health. It should foster positive attitudes towards environmental development and conservation. It should lead the youth of Kenya to appreciate the need for a healthy environment.

THE SENIOR SCHOOL IN THE COMPETENCY BASED CURRICULUM

Senior School is the fourth level of Basic Education in the Competency Based Curriculum (CBC) that learners shall proceed to after the Pre-Primary School, Primary School and Junior School levels. The essence of Senior School is to offer learners a pre-tertiary/university/ pre-career experience in which the learners have an opportunity to choose pathways, tracks and subjects where they shall have demonstrated interest and/or potential at the earlier levels. Senior School comprises three years of education for learners generally in the 16-18 years age bracket and lays the foundation for further education and training at the tertiary level and the world of work. In the CBC vision, learners exiting this level are expected to be engaged, empowered and ethical citizens ready to participate in the socio-economic development of the nation.

At this level, learners shall take seven (7) learning areas as recommended by the Presidential Working Party on Educational Reforms (PWPER, 2023). These shall comprise four compulsory learning areas namely: English, Kiswahili, Essential Mathematics/Core Mathematics and Community Service Learning (CSL). Learners will choose between Core Mathematics (for learners pursuing the Science Technology Engineering and Mathematics Pathway) and Essential Mathematics (for learners pursuing the non-STEM pathways). The learner will select three learning areas depending on their career choice, aptitude, interest and personality with guidance by the career teacher at Senior School.

LEARNING OUTCOMES FOR SENIOR SCHOOL

By the end of Senior School, the learner should be able to:

1. Communicate effectively and utilise information and communication technology across varied contexts.
2. Apply mathematical, logical and critical thinking skills for problem solving.
3. Apply basic research and scientific skills to manipulate the environment and solve problems.
4. Exploit individual talents for leisure, self-fulfilment, career growth, further education and training.
5. Uphold national, moral and religious values and apply them in day-to-day life.
6. Apply and promote health care strategies in day-to-day life.
7. Protect, preserve and improve the environment for sustainability.
8. Demonstrate active local and global citizenship for harmonious co-existence.
9. Demonstrate appreciation of diversity in people and cultures.
10. Manage pertinent and contemporary issues responsibly.

ESSENCE STATEMENT

The Indigenous Languages curriculum design has been designed equip learners with the requisite knowledge, skills and attitudes required to participate in various social activities and interact with each other and the environment in which they live. It builds on the language skills of listening, speaking, reading and writing handled at the Junior School level. Grammar in use is also a key strand in the design as it supports the development of literacy and communication skills. The course will strengthen positive attitudes and behaviour towards active listening and speaking, as well as extensive and intensive reading in indigenous language in anticipation of the successful discovery of information. The writing types provided such as curriculum vitae and speech writing are tailored towards developing skills that can be applied to real-life situations and the world of work.

The learner will be exposed to multiple ways of accessing information to improve learning. They will be inspired to embrace effective learning strategies such as carrying out oral literature projects and participating in indigenous language-based programmes in and out of school. Consequently, learning and communicating effectively in their indigenous language will be an added advantage. The use of the thematic language teaching will ensure that the requisite concepts, skills and attitudes are acquired within meaningful contexts and that the learner interacts with pertinent issues at community, national and global level.

By the end of the course, the learner will be expected to have attained high proficiency in the use of their indigenous language. This will open career opportunities in the media and other fields such as translation, publishing, research, law, teaching, indigenous science and technologies, medicine and public relations. Learners could for instance advance their knowledge of the indigenous language to become linguists who specialise in the development of orthographies.

DRAFT

SUBJECT GENERAL LEARNING OUTCOMES

By the end of Senior School, the learner should be able to:

1. express themselves confidently and appropriately in a variety of social contexts,
2. apply the use of indigenous language in various communication situations,
3. demonstrate ability to apply indigenous knowledge, culture and values in varied situations,
4. comprehend information in different contexts in the indigenous language,
5. read fluently and with comprehension in indigenous language,
6. use indigenous language to legibly write ideas and opinions in different formats,
7. enjoy communicating using a variety of cultural language strategies.

1.3 Grammar	1.3.1 Word Classes Types of nouns - Proper and common nouns - Concrete and abstract nouns - Compound and collective nouns	By the end of the sub strand, the learner should be able to: a) define a noun for information, b) explore the use of nouns in indigenous language for language acquisition, c) use nouns for language acquisition, d) appreciate the role of nouns in communication.	The learner is guided to: • work collaboratively to brainstorm the meaning of a noun, • listen to stories from the teacher, resource person or audio recording and pick out nouns, • work jointly to list the various types of nouns on a mind map, • engage in language games to categorise nouns as either common, proper, concrete, abstract nouns, compound, and collective, • make sentences using the target nouns, • work jointly to critique peers' sentences and respectfully offer feedback, • work jointly to build a vocabulary bank on the various types of nouns.	How are nouns important in learning a language?
Core Competencies to be developed: • Digital Literacy: The learner interacts with digital content as they listen to audio recordings of stories and picks out nouns. • Critical Thinking: The learner is able to apply logical reasoning when engaging in language games to categorise nouns.

DRAFT

Values: • Patriotism: The learner works towards building peers and their learning experiences by critiquing their sentences and respectfully offering feedback. • Unity: The learner collaborates with others while brainstorming the meaning of a noun.
Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs): Cultural Awareness: This is enhanced as the learner interacts with texts related to the theme.

Strand	Sub Strand	Specific Learning Outcomes	Suggested Learning Experiences	Suggested Key Inquiry Question(s)
1.4 Writing	1.4.1 Mechanics of Writing – Letters of the alphabet – Spelling rules – Double consonants and pluralisation	By the end of the sub strand, the learner should be able to: a) write letters of the alphabet in indigenous language, b) apply principles of orthography to spell words in indigenous language correctly, c) use appropriate capitalisation conventions in writing words, d) recognise the value of correct spelling in indigenous language.	The learner is guided to: • look at alphabet flashcards in indigenous language and sound them, • use an alphabet song to talk about the letters of the alphabet, • recognise letters of the alphabet, • team up to talk about common spelling rules in the target language, • write lower and upper case letters correctly in words, • display flashcards with correctly spelt words on the classroom or digital wall.	Why is it important to spell words correctly?
Core Competencies to be developed: • Collaboration: The learner contributes to group decision making by participating actively in identifying common spelling mistakes in indigenous language. • Critical Thinking: The learner makes critical observations on the spelling of words in the target language. • Learning to Learn: The learner develops relationships by sharing what they have learnt on spelling conventions in indigenous language.

DRAFT

Values: • Patriotism: The learner is aware of own and others cultures while spelling words in indigenous language. • Unity: The learner collaborates with others in the group while discussing common spelling mistakes in the target language.
Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs): Effective communication: The learner talks about common spelling mistakes and writes lower and upper case letters correctly in words.

			• engage in debates on a topic on traditional and modern forms of communication, • team up to evaluate the credibility of information during a debate.

Core Competencies to be developed:

- Collaboration: The learner contributes to group decision making by participating actively in evaluating the points raised during a debate.
- Critical thinking and Problem-solving: The learner critically analyses arguments and draws objective conclusions from debates.
- Citizenship: The learner demonstrates critical and constructive dialogue when engaging in a debate about traditional and modern forms of communication.
- Learning to Learn: The learner builds relationships by sharing knowledge of traditional and modern communication.

Values

- Patriotism: The learner respects peers while conversing with a resource person on issues about traditional and modern forms of communication.
- Social justice: The learner promotes harmonious relationships by analysing debate points on traditional and modern communication and drawing informed conclusions.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Effective communication: The learner discusses the significance of turn-taking during debates.

			• fill in gaps appropriately using pronouns.

Core Competencies to be developed:

- Learning to Learn: The learner works jointly with peers to build on their learning experiences by peer reviewing each other's work for correctness.
- Communication and Collaboration: The learner works jointly with peers and builds on their communication skills as they play language games using demonstrative pronouns.

Values:

- Responsibility: The learner diligently takes up assigned tasks when preparing flashcards with pronouns showing the first person, second person and third person in singular and plural forms.
- Unity: The learner collaborates with others to achieve team goals when brainstorming on pronoun definitions.

Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs):

Effective communication: The learner fills in gaps appropriately using pronouns.

2.4 Writing	2.4.1 Mechanics of Writing Punctuation marks – Comma – Full stop – Question mark – Exclamation mark – Quotation marks	By the end of the sub strand, the learner should be able to: a) explain the uses of punctuation marks in texts, b) use punctuation marks correctly in sentence construction, c) write short essays on the theme using punctuation marks correctly, d) acknowledge the importance of punctuation marks in writing.	The learner is guided to: • identify punctuation marks in a given text, • discuss the uses of selected punctuation marks, • practise using selected punctuation marks in writing sentences and short essays, • read the sentences and short essays aloud paying attention to punctuation marks, • collaborate in punctuating sentences and essays using online editing tools or offline resources, • critique peers' work and respectfully offer positive feedback.	Why do you punctuate texts?
Core Competencies to be developed: • Collaboration: The learner contributes to group decision-making by participating actively in punctuating sentences using online editing tools or offline resources. • Critical thinking and problem solving: The learner approaches a complex problem by creating options when critiquing peers' essays.

DRAFT

Values: • Respect: The learner understands and appreciates others while respectfully critiquing peers' essays and offering positive feedback. • Responsibility: The learner engages in an assigned role by writing an essay using appropriate punctuation and inviting other students to peer review. • Integrity: The learner displays honesty while editing sentences using online tools or offline resources.
Pertinent and Contemporary Issues (PCIs): • Creative thinking: The learner writes simple sentences on the given task. • Social cohesion: The learner promotes social cohesion when collaborating with peers to punctuate sentences using online editing tools or offline resources.
